

NGC Aerospace is honoured to be the organiser of the 20th IFAC International Symposium on Automatic Control in Aerospace, ACA 2016, to be held in Sherbrooke (Québec) on 21-25 August 2016 (ACA2016.ngcaerospace.com). Past symposia took place in St-Petersburg (Russia, 2004), Toulouse (France, 2007), Nara (Japan, 2010) and Würzburg (Germany, 2013). The special emphasis of this year's symposium will be on favouring the participation of students with a reduced registration fee and three student best-paper awards.

You are kindly invited to financially support the conference program through the Sponsorship Plan described below. Sponsors will gain exposure to over 100 international and national specialists in aerospace controls including many Canadian and Québécois students. A range of privileges will be granted to sponsors depending on the chosen sponsorship level, from bronze to diamond.
